A Night of Transformation: Sapientia One Global Solutions Launches

Under the dazzling glow of celebration and inspiration, Founder, Dr. Alicia B. Harvey-Smith, nationally recognized educator, and visionary leader, officially launched Sapientia One Global Solutions, LLC—a groundbreaking leadership training and development organization set to redefine professional and personal empowerment.

The evening unfolded at The Hampton Inn, Bridgeville, Pennsylvania, where esteemed guests, thought leaders, and change-makers gathered for a momentous occasion that set the stage for innovation and impact.

"Sapientia is founded with a mission to empower individuals and educational and business organizations on a global scale, through continuous learning and transformation", said Dr. Harvey-Smith. The vision is to create a world where knowledge and actionable frameworks drive sustainable growth, compassion, and resilience.

Sapientia One, Global Solutions believe that wisdom (Sapientia' in Latin) is the cornerstone of transformative innovation. Simply put, according to Major Donald Smith, co-founder, "by harnessing strategic insights, fostering dedicated partnerships, and committing to sustainable growth, we empower the future and drive unparalleled success for our clients".

Guests were captivated by the curated networking experience, a delectable selection of hors d'oeuvres, and the soulful rhythms of Alexis Rollins Electric Bass, setting a sophisticated yet electric tone for the night.

Adding depth to the celebration, an exceptional lineup of distinguished speakers shared their insights and congratulations. Speakers included:

Dr. Beverly Moore, Deputy Executive Director, Allegheny County Housing Authority
Dr. Kanak Iyer, President, Kanakadhara Financial Enterprise
Jim Gibbs, Co-Founder & CEO, Meter Feeder
Dr. Sharon D. Jones-Eversley, Professor Emeritus, Towson University
Dr. Pamela Love, President, DP Love Enterprises & Founder, Finishers Network
Mr. Michael Russell, Brookline Assembly

Deputy Executive Director, Allegheny County Housing Authority, Dr. Beverly Moore, provided congratulatory remarks which included, thanking Sapiientia's Founder for her leadership and vision, stating "Sapiientia also lends itself to not only encourage those who continue to have struggles with academic growth at all levels, but it gives one 'legs' to stand and steady themselves on while pursuing the goals ahead. I am honored to be part of the Sapiientia Movement."

The event overflowed with remarkable highlights, leaving attendees inspired and deeply moved. Congratulatory videos were received from across the globe, including heartfelt messages from St. Martin and the UK.

Official proclamations from the Office of the Mayor of Pittsburgh and The Allegheny County Executive, marked May 16 as Sapiientia One Global Day—a true testament to the organization's lasting influence.

The inaugural “Transforming the Future” Award, was presented to M-Powerhouse, a Pittsburgh nonprofit organization, celebrating leadership that drives positive, measurable change.

“I am deeply honored to receive the Transforming the Future Award, presented to me on May 16th by Sapiientia One Global Solutions. This recognition is a powerful reminder that our shared work to uplift communities and create innovative pathways is making a meaningful impact. Sapiientia One Global Solutions stands at the forefront of organizational transformation, blending leadership and innovation to help others succeed,” said Terry Smith, CEO.

Grace Glover, the mother of Sapiientia One Global Solutions, Director of Communications and Engagement, thanked the Founders for flowers presented to her at the event and described the evening as nothing short of amazing.

It was an unforgettable evening, the resonance of Sapiientia One Global Solutions will be felt far beyond that night—shaping leaders, transforming communities, and setting a bold new standard for empowered leadership.
